Our Vision

A resource-rich Burma that is accountable to its people and open to responsible investment has great potential to reverse years of decline. Our aim is to help Burma to harness this potential – to help create a better governed, more peaceful and prosperous Burma that uses its increased wealth to reduce poverty.

Our Results

Over our Operational Plan period (2011/12 – 2015/16), we aim to ensure:

- 650,000 women and men receive appropriate treatment to contain the spread of drug-resistant malaria. Results by March 2015: 547,000.
- 267,000 unintended pregnancies are helped to be averted. Results by March 2015: 249,000.
- Political rights and civil liberties improve, as measured by Freedom House. Results by March 2015: Not free. Medium-term trend is positive but civil liberties rating declined from 5 to 6 and freedom rating from 5.5 to 6.
- 227,000 children are helped to complete primary school by 2015. Results by March 2015:201,147.
- 140,000 women have access to affordable credit to strengthen and diversify their livelihoods, send their children to school and meet their medical needs. Results by March 2015: 158,279.
- Children under 5 and pregnant women reached with nutrition support. Results by March 2015: 187,452.
- 155,000 people affected by conflict receive humanitarian aid. Results by March 2015: 446,602.
