The most common reason travelers need to edit a name is due to a typing mistake during booking +1-(866) 829-1536 This may happen because of auto-fill errors, rushing through the checkout process, or booking through a third-party site where your name was saved incorrectly 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 Fortunately, Allegiant typically allows small corrections without much complication 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 However, the airline cannot change a ticket to a completely different person, as airline tickets are non transferable for security reasons 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 The correction must reflect your legal identity only 📞+1-(866) 829-1536

To begin editing your name, the first step is understanding your booking source 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 If you booked directly with Allegiant—whether through the Allegiant website, Allegiant app, airport counter, or a Allegiant representative—Allegiant can handle the correction directly 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 If your ticket was purchased from a travel agency or an online travel platform like Expedia or Priceline, you must contact that agency instead, because they control the ticketing information 📞+1-(866) 829-1536 Airline systems operate under strict fare rules, and the original issuing party must make changes on their end before Allegiant can update the reservation 📞+1-(866) 829-1536

Group reservations present their own unique challenges ☎+1-(866) 829-1536 If several passengers within a group booking need corrections, Allegiant may need to update each ticket individually, and this can take longer than single-passenger edits ☎+1-(866) 829-1536 Group leaders should review all names carefully and request corrections as early as possible ☎+1-(866) 829-1536 Name accuracy is especially important for school trips, corporate travel, and family vacations where many people travel under a shared itinerary ☎+1-(866) 829-1536
