

"Program for Livelihood Recovery and Resilience for Persons with Disabilities"

In the earthquake affected areas in Myanmar, the project will focus on persons with disabilities:

- ☐ To enhance livelihood and economic recovery
- ☐ To support restarting or expansion of small businesses
- ☐ To enhance disability inclusion, leadership of women persons with disabilities and economic opportunities

Objectives of the program

Types of eligible businesses for applications

- ✓ Producing value-added products from farming (e.g. packing and producing farm-products, making jam from fruits, etc.)
- ✓ Small-scale food production and packaging businesses
- ✓ Producing natural-based products (e.g. making soaps, shoes, recycling plastic waste materials to products)
- ✓ Traditional and cultural handicrafts, and artisan products
- ✓ Innovative businesses that create better local markets and prices

Details of funding support	Eligible criteria for applicants	Priority Criteria
Implementation period – Maximum 4 months to 6 months	Individual PWD or organizations/ local groups of PWD currently operating SMEs in the area, who need support to rebuild or sustain their enterprises	Groups/ organizations benefited to persons with disabilities
Additional support –business training, technical assistance and mentorship, product exhibitions will be arranged as well.	Individuals or local groups of persons with disabilities who would like to start new businesses as part of livelihood recovery	Leadership and participation of women of persons with disabilities
Implementation period – Maximum 4 months to 6 months	Only people living in earthquake-affected areas within southern Shan, Sagaing, Naypyitaw and Mandalay regions are eligible for applications	Ability to create employment opportunities for disabled youths, disabled women and persons with disabilities Environmentally sustainable products or businesses Strong innovation and creativity

Proposal review and selection criteria

- ✓ Demonstrated experience or expertise in proposed areas of business
- ✓ Feasibility of proposed business plan and good market potential
- ✓ Realistic and achievable business plan
- ✓ Good management capacity of groups/ organizations

