A major earthquake (6.8M) has occurred near Malel west bank of Ayeyawady River in Myanmar at November 11, 2012. This quake is related to the activity of the Sagaing Fault. Six aftershocks, indicating the size of the rupture length followed within 8 days.