This is an image of a map showing Waingmaw Township in Kachin State, Myanmar. The map includes various labels, such as village names, boundary lines, and landcover types, indicating the geographical and administrative divisions in the area. The map is produced by the Myanmar Information Management Unit (MIMU). The map is designed to aid humanitarian and development actors in understanding the geographical layout and administrative boundaries of the township. The map is oriented with a north direction at the top. The data source is indicated as the Ministry of Home Affairs (MoHA).