

Rapid Needs Analysis (RNA) Training

Introduction

Introduction of the training objectives

Main Objective

- to enhance knowledge, understanding and practice on coordinated needs assessments and to increase participant capacity to use the RNA approach in a major emergency to enhance work with partners and identify the priority needs of the affected population.

Introduction of the training objectives

Specific Objectives

1. Strengthen local capacity to facilitate & support coordinated assessments and information management
2. Improve data collection and analysis in humanitarian crisis
3. Know importance of assessments in emergencies
4. Encourage establishment of coordination structures and preparedness activities to support coordinated assessments and information management
5. Comprehend the participants with the framework for humanitarian action and promote the timely, predictable and evidence-based humanitarian response in Myanmar
6. To strengthen collaboration among humanitarian partners in collecting and analyzing information about needs and encourage evidence-based humanitarian decision making

Methodology

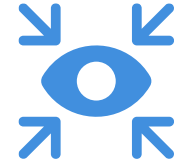

Presentations

Group Discussion

Quiz

Participatory approach

Simulation Exercise

House Keeping

- ✓ Registration
- ✓ Training time
- ✓ Expectation
- ✓ Presentations (soft copy)
- ✓ Resource materials (Online)
- ✓ Breaks
- ✓ Mood Meter
- ✓ Parking Lot
- ✓ Others

Introduction

- Name (also fine nick name)
- Your role
- One interesting thing about you

Ground Rules

- Phones in silence mode
- Be punctual
- ?????????

Ground Rules

Active participation

Discuss constructively

Respect time schedule

Encourage to ask questions
(Don't hesitate)

“

Thank you

”